

The Bergen County Prevention Coalition
brings you a FREE training...

Technical assistance provided!

Parents Who Host

Calling all alliances and municipalities!
Please join us for a free training on the public awareness program Parents Who Host Lose the Most Campaign. This program encourages parents and the ENTIRE community to send a unified message that teen alcohol consumption is unhealthy, unsafe and unacceptable. For those alliances or municipalities that attend the training, you will be entered to win FREE starter materials, courtesy of the Bergen County Prevention Coalition!

- DATE: May 20, 2015
- TIME: 6-7:15PM
- Light refreshments will be served
- WHERE: Children's Aid & Family Services: 200 Robin Road, Paramus
- RSVP: Erin Delaney at Edelaney@cafsnj.org

*Already been trained? Attend the full training and provide support to those who are new to the campaign, or come for a free technical assistance session provided from 7:15-8:00 PM. Please RSVP!

BERGEN COUNTY
Prevention Coalition

An Initiative of The Center for Alcohol and Drug Resources
A Program of Children's Aid and Family Services

DFAA

Drug Free Action Alliance

